

Rights and Protection of Rights of Witnesses

Witness is a person different from the accused person, who was called by the authorities involved in criminal proceedings to testify about the facts important for criminal proceedings, which he perceived by his own senses. In addition to the obligations stipulated by the Code of Criminal Procedure the witness is also granted rights according to his position in criminal proceedings... read more

Concealed Witness

In case of anticipated danger in relation to giving testimony the witness may be provided with special protection, including the concealment of his identity and appearance... read more
